Happy Belated Easter!

Hope everyone who had tickets for Penn Pals Easter Dinner enjoyed their meal. A BIG Thank you goes out to Ann Walsh and her bunny helpers.

When this event was offered to the Clubs in the Park, Ann Walsh was the first one to jump in and say "I will do it".

Where has the time gone? We were just welcoming our Snowbirds back and now we are saying goodbye!

With that, your BHA Board of Directors wishes you all safe travels, enjoy your families and the nice summer weather wherever you are headed.

Sue Held VP/ Entertainment Chairman has informed me of many summer events she is planning. At least one to two events each month.

Check out new cardio program on Monday, Wednesday and Friday in the Hospitality House. Great attendance has been reported.

No date to the opening of new pool property has yet to be released by ELS. Laundry rooms are on schedule for total renovation. Our town hall meetings to resume in the Fall.

In closing, Mother's Day Dime Bingo will be held @ Clubhouse on May 11. Lots of prizes to be given out. I will be calling the games that day.

Keep cool, keep cars off the lawn and pray for rain.

Your President
Michele "Micki" Erwin

Clean Up Clean Out

Stop by the Club House from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Wednesday May 14, to look through bins of decorations that will be discarded to make storage space room for files that need to be secure. The office copier will be put in that area.

Items up for sale include two chocolate machines and covered trellis, bins of linens/table coverings, two Christmas trees in storage bags as well as several wreaths. two pop up tents and items from the back shed that have been stored for a number of years.

If anyone is interested in repairing/painting Christmas reindeer they will be available to be removed at that time. Paint will be provided.

This area will be used as storage only.

Please keep your trash at home

TO ALL RESIDENTS: the trash cans on side of Club House and Hospitality House are to be used for events happening in Club House and Hospitality House.

We are asking that you keep your trash to be picked up at your home. Tires, wood, large boxes, metal, items with nails and screws can be picked up from homes in community. Which is basically everything you are putting in the trash cans at Club House and Hospitality House.

Those bins are to be used for trash from these buildings and events held.

We had no room for our trash in the trash cans after special events. As a result, the large bags purchased to dispose of trash on top of the bins resulted in giving rodents and birds access to those wet/nasty garbage bags.

If you are leaving on vacation or leaving for the season we understand you not wanting it left at your home.

We have had many complaints during warm weather from folks at the pool as well as residents coming into Club House from the back door.

We are asking that you please keep your trash at your home in your own trash cans and call a neighbor or the BHA Office for advice.

Committee Reports

PENN PALS COMMITTEE

Monday, April 14, the Penn Pal group had its last meeting of the season at Pincher's. More than 30 of our members showed up and for a couple of hours enjoyed each other's company as well as some delicious selections of meals.

Our Treasury was able to provide a portion paid for each member's luncheon which was welcomed by all.

Prior to this last get together, the group had voted on the new officers for the 2025-2026 season. Continuing in office are President – Ann Walsh, Secretary – Jo Schofield, Treasurer – Deborah Perrone. Ann's plans for the year have not been solidified, and Jo Ann Scullin had volunteered to step in as President if needed.

It was also announced that the Penn Pals would be hosting the annual Easter Dinner to be held on Sunday, April 20 for our Buccaneer residents. In addition to the meal of ham, roasted potatoes, cole slaw, easter bread and dessert, a turkey had been donated by Nancy Lewis which would also be offered to our diners. Flyers and tickets have been provided, and we are all looking forward to a delicious meal.

In addition Penn Pals will continue their monthly meetings beginning in November thru April 2026 held every third Friday at the Club House beginning at 5:30. We remind everyone that dues are still $2.00 for the year, and we welcome any and all residents in Buccaneer to our meetings.

Penn Pals are sending their wishes to Buccaneer residents for a wonderful summer.

The North Fort Myers Fire Department wants to remind you if are currently living in your home to always keep your hurricane shutters up in case of emergency. If a fire breaks you may need to escape through those windows. It can save your life.
